

Bathroom Sales Person

We have a great opportunity at our Plumb'In Bathroom store (Albany) for someone that is passionate about selling, and going the extra mile.

We are on the hunt for an experienced Trade Sales Super Star to join the team.

This is a key role in our business, and is customer focused.

You will be assisting our team with the day to day activities such as: customer service, order processing, quoting, pricing, counter and telephone support, stock control, showroom maintenance and cleaning, plus general administrative duties.

You will take pride in delivering outstanding customer service, over the phone and face to face, be dedicated and have the self-motivation to maximise sales opportunities.

Duties in this role include:

- Providing a high standard of customer service
- Accurate receipting on goods in Point of Sale System
- Matching of invoices from inward goods to relevant packing slips
- Production of orders and labelling of stock for customer purchases
- Following up, monitoring and communicating progress with customers for product ordered
- Purchase order production and ordering of stock from relevant suppliers as directed
- Point of Sale duties as required
- Partake in rolling and quarterly stocktakes

While having a background in the bathroom industry, or relevant product knowledge would be an advantage, we are willing to provide training for the right applicant. This position has a varied workload, and is a permanent full time role in a 7 day week operation, so there will be rostered weekend work and week days off.

The successful candidate will receive ongoing product and point of sale training.

If this sounds like you please forward a CV and a cover letter to us and tell us why you think you are the best person for the job.
